PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a reliable, enthusiastic and trustworthy individual with excellent time keeping and attendance record, who enjoys working in a busy work environment and strives to complete all tasks undertaken. Friendly and approachable, I work well with others, providing support and contributing positively within a team setting, as well as confidently working unsupervised. I feel my main attribute is my willingness to want to learn new skills, which will benefit both my employer and also me. I possess a good sense of humour and I am committed to quality customer services and am able to work well under pressure. Along the way I have gained and captured valuable knowledge which benefited me in many ways and provide me to expand and increase on my human capital.
